

Lee County Tornado Recovery: Next Events

August 13th (Tuesday)- Auburn Honors Serve Day 8:30am-4:00pm. We need four crew leaders to guide these incoming freshmen at local sites. Two of the student crews will serve with tornado survivors. The 3rd crew will serve in Tuskegee with our veterans' housing renovation and the 4th crew at the Tuskegee Mission Hub (TU Methodist).

Please contact Jeremiah Bryan by August 6th- Jeremiah@arm-al.org if you would like to help.

Auburn Honors Serve Week is called K(no)W Poverty. Incoming freshmen are sent throughout the community to serve and ARM gets to be a part. You can be a friendly face and voice welcoming these new students and introducing them to the AU and ARM Families.

Save the Date: September 25th week- Fuller Center Legacy Build. Seven more homes will be built for families who lost theirs during the storm!

August 15-18th- Join an incoming team helping with tornado relief. A group from Gordo, AL. and our own Embrace Church in Auburn (serving Saturday) are helping with repairs. Contact Andrew Baird andrew@arm-al.org if you would like to plug in with us.

August 24th (Saturday): 6:00pm Benefit Concert at the Tuskegee Mission Hub to assist tornado survivors in Lee County. ARM is hosting an awesome group, the Mission Chorus of Nashville, who sing at places across the country and also serve in the area. Join us for an inspiring night of worship from this incredible group!

September 11th (Wednesday)- Patriot's Day. Join us for another day of serving in Lee County. Meet at our office at Pepperell UMC (200 26th Street, Opelika) at 8:00am for a day of service. Please contact Andrew Baird andrew@arm-al.org for information or register on the Tornado Recovery Form.

Save the Date: Sweet Homes for Alabama \(No More Shacks\) is Thursday September 26th- Tuesday October 1st. Our director, Lisa Pierce, and others will be living in shacks for the week to raise funds for people needing vital repairs. See them on the AU Wesley Foundation Lawn 131 S. Gay Street Auburn.

We appreciate all you do and how we can learn to partner together more!

"So let's not get tired of doing what is good. At just the right time we will reap a harvest of blessing if we don't give up"- Galatians 6:9
